Some NOTES.

The Litwalton leaders lost the whole of the legislative delegation, but won two of the districts for the county committee. They carried the upper district by a vote of 90 to 55 and the middle one by 60 to 35—a total majority of 60; while the big White Stone district went against them by a majority ranging from 250.

NORTHEAST VIEW OF BUILDING. Motto: THOROUGH INSTRUCTION, UNDER POSITIVE CHRISTIAN INFLUENCES, AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE COST. A CHRISTIAN TRAINING SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, OPENED IN 1894. IS THIS SCHOOL THE SCHOOL FOR YOUR DAUGHTER?

PERTINENT FACTS. BUILDING AND GROUNDS. CHARACTER.

I. Christian.—It was built by the Methodist Church with one single purposenamely, to furnish thorough instruction under positive Christian influences.

II. Thorough.—There are ten Randolph-Macon graduates in the Faculty. The Principal, Vice-Principal, and the heads of all departments are Randolph-Macon graduates, and have been specially commended by the Randolph-Macon faculty for the work. There is no vain prefence or show. "Thorough" is the first word and the last word in the work of the school.

III. Successful.—The purpose and work of the school bave commended it to parents. Growth—Number of boarding pupils year by year for seven years—29, 58, 88, 136, 147, 153, 176. Number of officers and teachers in 1894, six; at present, tecniv. Value of grounds and building in 1894, $25,000; at present, $65,000. CHARACTER. well located, elevated, with fine natural drainage.

The Building is a handsome brick building, erected specially for school work from plans, the outcome of practical experience. There are three stories and basement—main building 260x46 feet, with wing 60x40 feet; wide verandas; large and airy study hall, class-rooms, music hall, gymnasium, and bed-rooms (only two girls in a room); electric lights; water on every floor, with fire-plugs every fifty feet; Peck-Hammond system of healing (fresh air taken from outside, driven by fan over hot furnaces to the various parts of the building); Peck-Hammond system of sanitation (fire and evaporation, instead of drainage and sewers); all parts of building so connected that no exposure of pupils to weather necessary at any time.

Three Courses.

REGULAR COURSE leads to Diploma of Graduation at the Institute.

TEACHER'S COURSE gives special preparation for those desiring to teach; Theoretical and Practical Pedagogy Courses. Pupils are taught to teach by actual teaching in Model School and criticism by teachers.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE COURSE prepares directly for Randolph-Macon Woman's College. An extract from a letter written by President Smith, of the Woman's College, is to the point: "I take pleasure in saying that the three students who came to us last year as graduates of your excellent institution entered college classes, and showed themselves qualified for them. This is no more than must reasonably be expected, seeing that your course has been so carefully adjusted to ours and ten of your faculty are Randolph-Macon graduates."
